

COOKING WITH DAD

Join us for some healthy cooking—key for a healthy mind, body, and soul. This activity is an awesome opportunity for fathers and father-figures to get in the kitchen and have some fun and eat good with their children/families!

We will provide the ingredients via contact-less drop-off as well as incentives to those fathers and father-figures who sign-up and attend.

WHO

The Children's Center fathers and father-figures with their children (10 maximum, sign-up required). First come, first-served.
