Crisis to Connection Information Sessions

What are the Crisis to Connection Information Sessions?

The Crisis to Connection Information Sessions are interactive, 1-hour sessions that will provide an introductory overview of the Crisis to Connection Imperative.

Participants will learn how the Imperative came to be, the problem the Imperative is addressing, the proposed solution, and the expected impact that the Imperative will achieve.

Participants will have the opportunity to ask questions throughout and at the end of the session. All participants will receive a Welcome Packet that includes the necessary information and resources to get involved.

Who should attend?

The Crisis to Connection Information Sessions are designed to increase community awareness, engagement, and participation in the work of the Crisis to Connection Imperative.

Anyone interested in learning more about the work and/or how to get involved is encouraged to attend!

When are the Information Sessions?

Beginning May 18, 2021 sessions will be offered on the:

- 3rd Tuesday of each month from 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.
 - Follow this link to join a Tuesday session!
- 1st Wednesday of each month from 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.
